CBP-2022-019140	Mr. Dave DeCastris	I contacted Melanie Zadrina, standards editor with Gannett Co. Inc., to inquire about a missing newspaper article published by their subsidiary, Rockford Register Star, on January 21, 2017. Gannett's subsidiary newspaper (Rockford Register Star) appears to have deleted a published news story which is against their editorial policies, and without any reason. Myself, along with a few professional artist friends, were featured in the article. The journalist, Sarah Wolf, no longer works for the Rockford Register Star is another detail I discovered this week. The article was active as of the end of 2020 from my recollectionâ€” I could be wrong. That's the most recent time I can remember being contacted because of it's public availability at the time. Melanie Zadrina, standards editor with Gannett Co. Inc., advised me to file a citizen public request first with SBA and FOIA of the missing record while she looks into it on their corporate editorial end. See article details below: Article Title: Creators call Rockford-based website a â€”social experiment,â€” not fake news Author: Sarah Wolf, Multimedia Journalist Publication: Rockford Register Star Published Date (Online and Print Editions): January 21, 2017 Original Published Source URL (now gone from all search engines including news/websites): rrstar.com/news/20170121/creators-call-rockford-based-	11/30/2021	Not an Agency Record
